"Whatever our Politics, the Constitution must be sustained"

Arlington Heights

Friday Sep 26th 1862

Dear Sister Nellie I received your last letter of Friday 26th inst as I had finish the letter that I send to you I also see the two Locks that you sent it was kinds of Hatty Eddy likeness and think a grate deal of it it is the 26th of Sept the day of festivals and prayers this morning Suzy was detail to go a Chaplain of last after they got on the parade ground they was ordered to brake ranks and go to their Quarters they have got a Holy Chaplin, a Mason preach to them more than four times since we left Albany Yesterday the report was that the Rebbles was a going to attack us and the orders was from Head

Special Collection Department, The Gelman Library, The George Washington University

Saunders for not a man to leave his Saunders and the Artillery was all drawn in line all day long if he please to see Regts Regts after Regts on from all over but if a Company of 78 Frenchy from Depot they have the finest Uniform that you ever seen and carry a Spear and Lassoo but if all the Arms that they have they are Mounted a splendid horses when they are on parade on the day time they carry nothing but their Lassoo and off a Moon rides to fit a way they throw the Lassoo and catch him every time and to see the horses run away here they drive four horses with one line I have seen them by waggons smash all to pieces I got left behind a while and see them Hoss

© Special Collection Department, The Gelman Library, The George Washington University

the forces that have the forge on the road from Fou dee a hundred horses gitting shode a/ once Friday Morning it has ben raining all Night and all Morning the Regt may Jow on foot and every Regt unoutfit to goo the fourth Distic the Regt took two days rations and must come back before Sunday Noon on guard at the gate of the Fort in the guard house of the Fort is four of privates from each Company that belongs to the 13th Regt and one Sergt 12 Corporals and two Buglers and the rest belongs to their Regt Drumfifers that is a good deal of talk about the fight in Ohio and Defiance that some thinks there are a lot of Confederate Concords by some of the talk that comes to

© Special Collection Department, The Gelman Library, The George Washington University

but — they are the far from being Cowards every time — that — they have been on picket and the to have been drove in the 14th — has ben the last — to retreat and never have till they have been ordered to retreat when Some others Regt. that would be on the Reserve would throughout — throw their blankets and overcoats and run that the De Kalb Regt. from New York a duche Regt. that are the biggest lot of Cowards that I ever seen and all most — ever time they git — drove in when they come to relive us the other time that — Our Regt. was out — and the rebbles was firing at — us they was out — to death — and three wounded to retreat. Three of ours Men while the bullets was hitting the trees they was agoin to run us out — to day

I Send the — one dollar

Your Brother
S. S. Beaver

© Special Collection Department, The Gelman Library, The George Washington University